	Former Woke Mom Exposed "Gender-Affirming Care" Fraud	https://youtu.be/IsV0dDyTMBA
	I sat down with Mia Hughes, author of "The WPATH Files," to discuss her work exposing the junk science and corruption behind "gender-affirming care," youth transition, and transgender activism. As she describes it, this is one of the worst crimes in medical history, made worse by the fact that the only people who've been punished are those who've spoken out against it. Mia's exposé revealed the idea laundering and circular references between WPATH and medical institutions, using weak data to justify irreversible hormonal and surgical interventions for adults suffering from severe mental illness and for children, who by definition cannot consent. European countries have begun to back off, and the post-2024 election "vibe shift" in the U.S. has brought about some improvements, but in countries like Canada, this is far from over.

	David Reimer: The boy raised as a girl — Psychology's most catastrophic experiment	https://youtu.be/Xwsekb5QReo
	Bruce Reimer was born in 1965 — a perfectly healthy baby boy in Winnipeg, Canada. At just 8 months old, a routine medical procedure went catastrophically wrong. His parents, desperate and heartbroken, were pointed toward a man named Dr. John Money — a celebrated psychologist at Johns Hopkins University who believed gender was entirely a matter of nurture, not nature. His solution: raise Bruce as a girl. Give him a new name. A new room. A new identity. For years, Dr. Money published papers calling the experiment a success. He received awards. He gave lectures. The world called him a visionary. But behind closed doors — a child was suffering. This is the true story of David Reimer. A boy who was failed by science, by medicine, and by the adults who were supposed to protect him. A boy who fought to reclaim his identity. And a story that changed the way we understand what it means to be human.

	206. The Intersex Lie: Róisín Michaux on How Queer Theory Hijacked a Rare Medical Condition	https://youtu.be/bJeLVOwIp_s
	We dig deep into intersex activism: what it actually is, who's behind it, and why it matters for parents navigating the gender craze with their children. Róisín explains the crucial distinction between people with genuine disorders of sexual development (DSDs) — rare, named medical conditions like congenital adrenal hyperplasia (CAH), Turner syndrome, and complete androgen insensitivity syndrome (CAIS) — and the largely queer-theory-driven "intersex identity" movement that has very little to do with medicine and everything to do with dismantling the sex binary.
	223. The HIV Money Trail Behind Global Transgender Health Policy | Róisín Michaux Returns	https://youtu.be/ESAQdqfOZE4
	Róisín walks me through how a 2019 reclassification in the International Classification of Diseases — moving gender identity out of mental health and into sexual health in order to "depathologize" it — created a conundrum: how do you get hormones and surgeries reimbursed for a condition that's no longer a condition? That question, she argues, is the thread that connects the WHO's guideline development group to a much larger story about HIV funding, the Global Fund, Open Society Foundations money, and decades of AIDS-elimination targets.

	Bp Athanasius Schneider: same Neo-Marxist methods as Communist times	https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=XRCal8CQ4CQ
	Bishop Athanasius Schneider reflects how "the dictatorship of gender ideology" that permeates Western culture today, including through the introduction of ideologically-driven "hate speech laws," constitutes the same methods of manipulation that he experienced in Communist times. He calls it a neo-Marxist, neo-Communist, neo-Gnostic revival with totalitarian and dictatorial means.
	Bishop Barron on Religious Freedom & Gender Ideology in Minnesota	https://youtu.be/HDTG6M7H_-8
	Bishop Barron of Winona-Rochester shares his deep concerns with the so-called "Equal Rights Amendment" proposed in Minnesota and asks Catholics across the state to take action on May 8. The proposed language in the ERA fails to protect Minnesotans from discrimination based on religion, could constitutionally mandate legal abortion up to the moment of birth, and promotes harmful gender ideology.
